Assessment

The Chicago State University Textbook and Learning Materials Program-Ghana (TLMP), Chicago State University College of Education (COE), TLMP Executive Leadership, the Ministry of Education (MOE), the Ghana Educational Service (GES), and the Curriculum Research and Development Division (CRDD), assembled a methodology perform an evaluation of the use and effectiveness of the books designed as part of the TLMP. The tools and methodology proposed for the evaluation were approved by the Chicago State University Institutional Review Board (CSU Protocol # 031-01-09). The purpose of the evaluation was to determine the extent and impact of use of the teaching and learning materials in the kindergarten classes in Ghana that have been among the 14 beneficiary districts.

On December 31, 2010, Dr. Athanase Gahungu submitted a draft of the assessment report. Since that time the report has been finalized. To view the completed report click here.
