

POLICY ON MILITARY MOBILIZATION

The University has policies for both students and faculty/staff regarding calls to active military service. Refer to the Institutional Policy Manual, available on line at www.csu.edu/ipm/ for the full text. Faculty and staff are excused to participate in active duty and may return to the position or another one upon their return.

Students are allowed to withdraw from the University and allowed to re-enroll. Arrangements for refunds, loan or grant re-payments should be addressed by the Office of Financial Aid. The Office of the Registrar handles all other academic issues. Students should notify both offices immediately upon receiving an official call up notice.

Any currently enrolled student who is called to active military service will be allowed to complete any unfinished courses at a later date at no additional charge, unless course credit has already been given or the student received a full refund upon withdrawing from the course (in which case the student's record shall reflect that the withdrawal is due to active military service). The student will be given priority over other students in reenrolling in the course or courses.
