f. Gwendolyn Brooks Collection
Dr. Westbrooks explained that a request was made to generate a plan for how dollars would be generated to meet the requirements to secure the Gwendolyn Books papers. She stated a plan has been submitted for review and approval.

Dr. Finney commented that the Finance and audit committee was reluctant to move forward because they did not understand how to effectively raise the additional money of $200,000 per year for five years.

Trustee Tolliver noted that there was a resolution that says the money will be forthcoming, but no source was identified. Trustee Tolliver recommended that a letter of understanding and strategy be submitted to the Board.

Trustee Tolliver moved to table the Gwendolyn Brooks collection until a concrete strategy is presented. Trustee Hill seconded the motion. The motion passed as follows:

Ayes: 4
Nays: 1

5. Senior Administrator’s Report
Dr. Sandra Westbrooks reported on the enhancement of registration and the student loan check disbursement process. Both initiatives were successful because all student services were housed in one location and both impacted enrollment and retention. Dr. Westbrooks also reported that computers were set up by Dr. Erma Brooks Williams so that students were able to communicate directly to the governor asking him to restore the MAP Award.

Dr. Westbrooks noted it was because of the initiatives outlined that enrollment is up by 400 plus students and that number will be reported to IBHE. In order to retain all students, Dr. Westbrooks commented that a mass request to deans, department chairs and faculty went out to identify those students who require additional academic support.

Trustee Montes commended staff and faculty in terms of some very positive feedback with the students.

Trustee Tolliver replied that the whole team should receive accolades.
6. Committee Reports

Trustee Betsy Hill reported that the Academic and Student Affairs, Personnel and Legislative Committee had nothing to further report.

Trustee Leon Finney stated that the Finance, Facilities and Audit Committee had nothing further to say.

Trustee Richard Tolliver reported that the next meeting for the Civil Service Merit Board would be in October, so there was nothing to report.

Trustee Levon James reported that registration for the first time in many years has gone back to one-stop-shop and was done in a spirit of service to the students. Trustee James also commented on the 50% cut by the MAP Grant funding. He stated it would take a strong commitment from the entire university community both on-campus and off-campus to restore these funds. Trustee James stated regarding customer service that one identity coupled with a commitment to excellence is needed to push our university forward. Regarding student health insurance, Trustee James questioned if the pink card has been reinstituted, if so, why hasn’t any information gone out informing students of that change.

Ghana Program Review

Trustee Finney requested Dr. Conteh to come before the Board with information regarding the trip to Washington, D.C.

Dr. Conteh commented that the trip to Washington was to launch the Text Book Teaching and Learning Program (TMLP) initiative and to also celebrate three years of what the program had achieved in Ghana, Africa. Dr. Conteh reported that CSU produced 2.5 million books, which was able to reach children and teachers within 14 deprived districts in Ghana. Dr. Conteh stated that TMLP won the Teddy Award and because of that our $13 million grant from USAID was renewed for the next three years.

Trustee Finney responded that he was very proud of this school as it related to the Ghana project and commended Dr. Conteh and her staff. The Ghana resolution was read by Trustee Finney.
