6. Reports
a. Academic and Student Affairs
   1. Information Item
      Trustee Joyce noted that there are two resolutions to be addressed. They are the Evidence-Based Trauma Practice and the Textbook Learning Materials Program (TLMP) Grant.

      Dr. Yvonne Harris introduced Dr. Rasheed who gave an overview of the Evidence Based Trauma Practice resolution. Dr. Rasheed stated that the Evidence Based Trauma Practice is a program with the Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) that provides statewide training to child welfare workers to help them become sensitive to evidence of trauma.

      Trustee Smith: Who does the training and what is the evidence of its success? Dr. Rasheed stated that professional social workers and counselors are the trainer and that the trainers are not faculty. He also stated that required annual reports are provided to DCFS and the federal government, which measures the program’s success, stated Dr. Rasheed. Trustee Smith asked for a copy of the annual report and Dr. Rasheed stated that it would be provided.

      Trustee Young: Is this the first year of the grant? No, this the sixth year stated Dr. Rasheed. The program began in 2008.
Dr. Harris gave an overview of the TMLP grant, noting that this is the last year of the grant.

Dr. Watson commended Dr. Harris on the success of the TMLP program. He stated that CSU was the only university out of six that was funded this year.

Trustee Joyce: Does CSU deal specifically with Ghana? Yes, stated Dr. Harris.

Trustee Young: Why is South Africa mentioned in the synopsis. Dr. Harris stated that was the start site.

Trustee Smith: What is CSU’s role in the program, for example does it administers the program or provides the materials and does CSU provide faculty and student? Dr. Harris stated that CSU provides the resources and training. She also stated that faculty and students are provided. Dr. Watson noted that the program was an independent unit within the university; however it is now under the College of Education.

Trustee Smith: What are the next steps once the program ends, for example how are the people in the program empowered. Dr. Harris stated that the program has been institutionalized, noting that the next challenge will be technology. Trustee Smith asked for reports on the program; Dr. Harris stated that she would supply the reports.

Mr. Pinkelton stated that the budget is $372.2 million dollars, noting that the Westside campus is our number one priority.

Trustee Smith: Are the building(s) for the Westside Campus new structure(s) and are we looking at Chicago Public Schools that have closed? Mr. Pinkelton stated that whether or not the structure(s) are new or existing has not been determined. Dr. Watson stated that there is a committee that is working on this issue.

Trustee Young: Do you expect all of these projects to be funded? Mr. Pinkelton stated that this is the University’s wish list; however we continue to advocate getting these projects funded. President Watson stated that the Electrical Switchgear was such a project and through advocacy it was funded.

Trustee Smith: Please explain why the expansion of the Westside campus is number one and you are trying to build a science building on the current campus and it is number 18. How do you prioritize these projects?

President Watson stated that the Westside Campus was a line item that the senate identified and we did not have the option of using it on the current campus.

c.  Audit

Mr. Kenneth Clow stated that there are two draft reports with a schedule completion date in June and that they are working on various audits. He stated that the FY2014 and 2015 Internal Audit Plan will be sent to Trustee Curtin within the next week for his comment.

9. Other Matters
   a. Public and Employee Comments

       Trustee Young stated that during Public and Employee Comment time the Board does not answer questions, or discuss personnel matters. Trustee Young stated that this a question for someone in administration.

       Student, Graduate, Can you give us some help and guidance on a concern that I and other students have, this is directed to the President.

       Professor Sara Austin expressed her concerns about the retention of Dr. Mahoney. Trustee Young informed Professor Austin that the discussion of personnel is not allowed.

       Professor Austin expressed her concerns on how to improve the University and that there was not a report from Human Resources.
Dr. Beverly thanked the employees that were retiring. He stated that there are two things that are ironic around our accreditation.

1. A monitoring report is due on communication. It seems that we are still challenged and we have not learned much.

2. In 2003 at the accreditation process we were told that our Enrollment process was haphazard and a focus visit was required. So the irony of an institution of higher learning not being a learning organism is sad.

Enrique Dunkin, Student thanked the University for the magnificent job it is doing in retaining first year students. He also thanked Dean Sheila Collins.

Mr. Ronald Harris, Director of African American Resource Center extended an invitation to attend the citywide mass graduation ceremony for African American males that will be held on campus, Saturday, June 30, 2013.
