Traditionally, students at CSU stop in and stop out (attend one semester, then leave the next semester, and return the following semester). We are trying to encourage student to return to CSU.

Dr. Henderson stated that anecdotally we are probably losing students to private colleges. Our data shows that we lose about 870 students between the fall and the spring. Students are leaving for academic and financial reasons. Dr. Henderson stated that many students are unable to return due to finances. On the academic side, we have ramped up tutoring and we have an early warning system.
