7. Reports

President Scott highlighted the spring operating plan that was shared with the university community and created as a part of shared governance. CSU convened an Equity working group to focus on College going behavior among Black students. The Equity working group plans to release actionable recommendations by February with the Civic Alliance partnership. Chicago State College of Business will house the Equity Diversity and Inclusion certificate program to align with the needs of Diversity and Inclusion professionals. A shared governance exercise was conducted earlier this month and participants included Chair Zopp, Trustee McDade, faculty and staff.

Dr. Roundtree, Interim Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs was called to present the Academic Affairs report highlighting faculty achievements that 139 students were brought in through the RISE Academy program, and that Commencement for spring, summer and fall graduates will be virtual on this Thursday. Dr. Roundtree also noted that 80% of classes were remote and 20% were on campus. Faculty have been productive during the remote environment bringing in $12 million in grant monies.

Dr. Devi Prasad V. Potluri, Dean, School of Graduate and Professional Studies was called to discuss Graduate school enrollment. The Graduate school saw a 5% increase in fall enrollment. He is hoping for a slight increase in the spring and summer. International student visas were affected due to COVID-19 rules. For the first time, the Graduate school offered scholarships to students. Dr. Potluri shared that our student thesis work has been accessed and read around the world.

Dr. Welch, VP of Enrollment management was called to present the Enrollment Management Undergraduate Strategic Plan. The Strategic plan will cover the years 2020 – 2025 and focuses on four main goals: to increase undergraduate new student enrollment by 15%; strengthen the relationships with high schools, community colleges and industry; improve policies and processes; and improve the student experience.

Craig Deutsch, Chief Financial Officer and Vice President of Financial Operations was called to present the financial report which represented the first summary quarter report. Overall there was a net revenue loss of 27% due to a reduction of student fees, housing, dining and auxiliary departments affected by COVID-19 and the changes that were made to adjust for campus closures and reductions. Overall spending is down 13% and includes a budgeted 4% reduction. The first quarter showed no travel expenses. We anticipate an increase in spending based on fall sports moving to the spring semester.

Kevin Triskett, Deputy Executive Director of Chicago State Foundation was called to present an update on the Foundation. The second quarter began with the First Generation Gala, which was a huge success. The funds raised at the gala will support the Rise Academy scholarship. Northern Trust, Relativity, and the Crown Family all committed funds to support our student success initiatives, Rise Academy scholarships and First Gen scholarships. The Foundation hosted with the Alumni council a well-received event, which included a conversation with President Scott. A Champion Mentor Program will begin with industry support. The Foundation also collaborated with the Athletic department for a day of giving. The latest audit reported no findings. The Foundation also began a new gift-naming program to bring in additional funding.
