7. President’s Remarks

President Scott began by greeting the Trustees and thanking them for their service. She provided a brief report on the exciting activities happening at CSU. President Scott shared an update from the Lt. Governor visit on January 28th. Lt. Governor Juliana Stratton along with Illinois Senator Sen. Elgie Sims Jr visited campus. They were provided with an update on CSU’s efforts to increase diverse teachers, met with students in the Call Me Mister program and met with the Dean of Students.

President Scott then moved to CSU’s Black History Celebration. The theme was Lifting as We Climb: Our Stories Continue. She reviewed all the activities that took place during Black History Month.
President Scott also gave her 4th State of the University Address on February 24th and thanked Chair Zopp for providing the welcome on behalf of the Board. President Scott also spoke about the Presidential Lecture Series. This series featured conversations between current Chicago State students and renowned alumni. Over 200 guests attended the lecture.

The President then moved to the renovation of the Wellness Center and ongoing COVID-19 activities. The wellness center is managed by Advocate Aurora Healthcare and all renovations were managed in house. Chicago State continues masking protocols and was able to offer financial assistance to approximately 3320 students. Chicago State continues to offer testing to students and staff.

President Scott then spoke about her meetings off-campus with various school leaders and those that manage college-going activities. President Scott also gave an update on the 95th Street Corridor study. Chicago State held 4 public engagement sessions. There were over 200 people that participated in the sessions.

President Scott gave an update on the Chicago State Foundation. Darrious Hilmon will be leaving the Foundation. She thanked him for his service.

Finally, President Scott gave an update on the upcoming Budget Hearings before the Illinois House and Senate. The CSU Administration will present before the Higher Education Appropriations Committee in the Illinois House of Representatives and will present to the Senate Higher Education Appropriations Committee.

She closed by thanking each of the trustees for their continued engagement and partnership on behalf of Chicago State University.

8. Board Reports

Academic Affairs

Chair Zopp called on Dr. Thomas Rowan III, Associate Provost, Contract Administration to give the Academic Affairs report and present one resolution.

Dr. Rowan gave updates from the Academic and Student Affairs Department. The Fall 2021, an in-person commencement ceremony was held. 179 degrees were awarded and over 150 students participated including students from 2020 whose commencement was virtual. The department is currently planning the May 2022 ceremony. The department continues to work to prepare for the HLC visit in February 2023. Finally, the department is working on transfer pathways and improve CSU’s presence on Transferology, a state-wide transfer credit system.

Other highlights included faculty research, grant proposals submitted $11,337,649 and grants received of $49,581, and other exciting work.

At the conclusion of her report, Dr. Rowan was called to present the resolution for Professor Emeritus Status for Dr. Deborah Lynch.

Student Trustee Report

Chair Zopp called on Student Trustee Essence Smart to give her report. The student trustee highlighted many activities that happened around campus including activities for Black History Month.

Did You Know?

Chair Zopp then called on Dr. Carolyn Theard-Griggs to present the Did You Know segment on the College of Education. Dr. Carolyn Theard-Griggs presented on Diversifying the Illinois Education Workforce and how Chicago State University feeds into the Illinois State Board of Education’s Diversity Pipeline.

She highlighted CSU’s programs Call Me Mister and Diverse Scholars. She also highlighted recruitment strategies that CSU uses to recruit Diverse education scholars.

Enrollment Management Report

Chair Zopp called on Kim Tran, Chief of Staff to the President to present the Enrollment Management report.

Mr. Tran announced the addition of Bill Sliwa as the Interim Vice President of Enrollment Management. He also discussed strategies that Mr. Sliwa implemented that focus on two parallel tracks: immediate impacts for the summer and fall 2022 semesters and setting the foundation for the fall 2023 recruitment cycle, which begins in September 2022. The national search for a permanent VP of Enrollment began and qualified candidates will be evaluated on a rolling basis by March 25.
Mr. Tran also discussed updates to the Enrollment Management strategies, transfer student recruitment numbers, new partnerships, and grants that support enrollment growth. Currently the below strategic approaches are being applied:

1. Combining a data-driven focus and the leveraging of relationships to inform recruitment activities Conducted a targeted “name buy” to increase the recruitment pool for admissions messaging
2. Prioritizing an increase in enrollment yield through redirecting marketing and financial aid messaging Brought on a firm that specializes in rapid communications to increase capacity for a “hard” sell of the university in alignment with brand and audience preferences
3. Balancing in-person and virtual recruitment events and information sessions to reach wider audiences Planning on-campus admissions days with City Colleges and new prospective student audiences (South Suburbs, Aurora)
4. Promoting access to available financial aid resources Highlighting specific financial aid amounts awarded to each student in their admissions acceptance letters
5. Enhancing the customer service experience of prospective and current students based on engagement feedback through focus groups and surveys Planning systematic student orientation activities to ease students’ transition into college that can be tailored to different audiences (STEM, transfers only, etc.)

Finance and Audit Report

As Chair of the Finance and Audit Committee, Trustee Schneider called on Craig Duetsch, Chief Financial Officer, and Vice President of Financial Operations to present reports and one resolution.

Mr. Duetsch presented the Financials for the six months ending December 31, 2021, an update on current contractual obligations over $10K and four resolutions.

Chair Schneider asked Mr. Duetsch to present his next resolution. Mr. Duetsch presented the resolution to approve the Tuition Discount to Chicago Park District (CPD) employees for Recreation Certificate resolution.

CSU and CPD have partnered on several collaborations from sharing gymnastics/tumbling equipment and program space in the JDC to the recent contractual agreement for swim instruction (required course) at West Pullman Park for the Physical Education and Recreation majors in the department.

CSU Recreation faculty frequently visits and presents at CPD Professional Development workshops for staff at the invitation of their Workforce Development Department. Various CPD Administrators also serve as Recreation Advisory Board members and provide internship and volunteer opportunities for CSU students.

Other institutions that offer CPD employees tuition discounts include DePaul University, Roosevelt University and Capella University.

CSU is interested in maintaining and building this CPD partnership and competing with other institutions to provide recreation education throughout the Chicago metropolitan area.

The College of Education, therefore, seeks Board approval to offer a 30% discount tuition rate per credit hour to CPD employees interested in taking courses needed for the 20 Hour Recreation Certificate Program.
