7. President’s Remarks

President Scott gave a brief update on university activities. President Scott congratulated Trustee Smart on her re-election and is excited to continue to watch her leadership journey. President Scott also thanked Walter Pryor for his service as Interim General Counsel. She thanked him for staying 6 months after his original end date.

President Scott gave an update on the opening of the Child Development Center. The Ratner family provided a transformative gift that led to the construction of the Child Development Center in honor of the legacy David A. Kanis. Peggy Montes also was in attendance, and she provided a gift towards assets that will support the Center, namely the playground. She also thanked Trustee Watkins for attending and several legislators attended as well. She also thanked the alumni, faculty, and campus community for attending and touring the center. The center will serve children from 3-12.

The President also talked about a gift from Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated. In 2019 Chicago State University received $50,000 and in 2022 Chicago State University received an additional $50,000 from the sorority.

Finally, the President spoke about the CEO of ComEd’s visit to Chicago State University. The purpose of this visit was to learn more about Chicago State University’s stem education program. He heard from students and faculty about CSU led research and visited the Student Union building which is named after Cordell Reed the first Black engineer at ComEd. The President of AT&T Illinois and members of her executive team also visited Chicago State University. This was part of the ongoing relationship with AT&T.

The President concluded with thanking the Board and stating that her 4 years at Chicago State have been eventful and the best four years of her life.

8. Board Reports

Academic Affairs

Chair Zopp called on Dr. Leslie Roundtree, Interim Provost, to give the Academic Affairs report.

Provost Roundtree gave an update on the Institute for Solutions of Urban Populations and the two centers: The Illinois Center of Education Equity and Center for Workforce Equity have been approved by the Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE) for five years, they will be housed in Douglas Hall. During the five years, CSU will report the progress of the Institute and its Centers on an annual basis to IBHE.

Chair Zopp asked the timing of the HLC accreditation visit and to give an update on the work that has been happening around the visit. The visit will take place on February 27\textsuperscript{th} and 28\textsuperscript{th}, 2023. Provost Roundtree stated that CSU has been working for the last couple of years. They are currently working with non-academic entities on campus, so they understand the process. Provost Roundtree stated that they will be working with the Board of Trustees as well.

Enrollment Management Report

Chair Zopp then asked Kim Tran to present the Enrollment Report. Mr. Tran gave updated enrollment figures for summer and fall 2022 and compared those figures to 2021. CSU is seeing an increase in enrollment numbers. There continues to be challenges in national and institution-type enrollment.

Mr. Tran mentioned there was growth in sophomore-level continuing students. This success is due to the culmination of student success reforms (Cougar Commitment) and Rise Academy. The growth in freshman level incoming students is due to enrollment management strategies that have included data-driven recruitment activities and process improvements.
Mr. Tran also gave an update on strategies and partnerships that support enrollment growth. These strategies included partnerships with Discover Financial Services and Amazon. Both allow employees to pursue degrees with tuition benefits.

Finally, CSU is trying to reengage “Stopout” students. These students left the university for any number of reasons and have not resumed their collegiate study anywhere else. CSU received a $300,000 grant from the Thurgood Marshall College Fund to create their enrollment strategy to reenroll “stopout” students.

Did You Know?

Chair Zopp then called Dr. Nayshon Mosely Dean of the Student Success Program to talk about the program. Student Success falls under the Cougar Commitment, which is a student led partnership between students, families, and communities. The goal is increased enrollment, retention, and graduation rates. Within the student success they have the various Pre-College Supports: Trio programs, Dual enrollment, Under Scholarship supports that are working with Hope Chicago and Rise Academy, Academic Advising which includes Inside Track which is a coaching model for advisors and then actual advising.

Chair Zopp asked Dr. Mosely to present later if the program is working or if there is anything that needs to be added.

President Scott congratulated Dr. Mosely on starting the program and the great work she has done so far.

Student Trustee Report

Chair Zopp then called on Student Trustee Essence Smart for her report. Student Trustee Smart highlighted the National Council of Negro Women, Psi Chi, and the Black Student Psychological Association. She also mentioned that she attended the Women in Forefront Luncheon with President Scott.
