TALENT SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The Talent Scholarship is awarded to undergraduate students who display a talent, aptitude, or ability, and/or perform in one of the following areas: Arts, Athletics, Student Leadership, Student Publications or Special Talents. These Scholarships are awarded by term, depending upon continued participation in the talent area, and maintenance of good academic standing. Talent Scholarships cover the cost of tuition only and must be renewed each term. To be eligible for a Talent Scholarship a student must be enrolled for at least 12 hours, must have completed a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), cannot decline any other tuition scholarship, and must maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative grade point average (Note: some Talent Scholarship recipients must demonstrate a higher grade point average). Final decisions for awarding Talent Scholarships are determined by the Director of Student Financial Aid.

Instructions: Complete application and return to the talent area to which you are applying.
