

Removal of State/Federal Constitution Examination Requirement Policy

Policy Statement/Language: Students are no longer required to take and pass the state and federal constitution examinations as part of their graduation requirements.