

University General Education Critical Thinking and Diversity Course Policy

Category: General Education

Subject: Critical Thinking Course

Policy Statement/Language: All CSU students are required to complete a Critical Thinking course and a Diversity course. These courses are embedded in the curriculum, so that a course may be used to fulfill BOTH a general education social sciences course requirement, for example, AND the diversity requirement.

Effective Fall 2007