

Chicago State University
MSW Alumni Network presents

MEET THE SPEAKER

The Work:
A Journey of Experiential
Therapy and Rites of Passage for Men

Anthony (Bharataji) Joplin, C.A.M.C.

Certified Anger Management Counselor, Training Manager, Becoming A Man (B.A.M)

BIOGRAPHY

Anthony (Bharataji) Joplin, C.A.M.C., is a Certified Anger Management Counselor through the Chicago Anger Institute. He is also a former Certified Full Leader of the New Warrior Training Adventure through the ManKind Project, with more than 85 trainings and 30 years of experience. Mr. Joplin has 30 years as a board member and facilitator for Inside Circle, a program at California State Prison in Folsom that conducts inmate groups inside the prison. He was Lead Facilitator for a SAFER Foundation program that conducted groups with ex-offenders. He served as Lead Facilitator for Fathers, Families and Healthy Communities, a community initiative for non-custodial fathers, for two years. He has facilitated Inward Journey/Underground Railroad Odyssey for 25 years. Mr. Joplin has spent 15 years as a facilitator for Damali, Ltd., specializing in their Multicultural Training, Bridges and Boundaries. He has extensive experience specializing in rites-of-passage programs for adults and youth. Mr. Joplin is currently the Training Manager for Youth Guidance's B.A.M. (Becoming A Man) program through the BAM Training Academy.

EVENT DETAILS

Alumni Speaker Series —
Fall Presentation

November 19th | 6:00–7:30 PM

GBL 4th Floor Auditorium

Free | CEUs Available

Scan to Register

