*The Work: A Journey of Experiential Therapy and
Rites of Passage for Men*

Dr. Cameron D. Frazier,
DSW, LCSW

Lead Panelist & Facilitator
CSU MSW Alumni, Class of 2013

Dr. Cameron D. Frazier, DSW, LCSW, is a decorated Desert Shield/Storm combat veteran, licensed clinician, DJ, and Adjunct Professor at Aurora University. An alumnus of Aurora University and Chicago State University, he serves as a member of the Chicago State University MSW Alumni Committee. He is professionally trained in several psychological therapeutic modalities and has done grassroots work throughout the Milwaukee area, using hip-hop culture to create positive change for youth. He volunteers to facilitate weekend rites of passage for men and believes the Black community can heal itself through self-determination. With more than 30 years of experience in community engagement, Cameron has been a servant leader and community advocate supporting healing for the community he loves.
